GWP & GWPO Statutes

amended on 18 August 2011, adopted on 23 August 2011 and entering into force on
23 August 2012

Article 1

LEGAL STATUS

(1) These Statutes regulate the functions and organisation of the Global Water Partnership Network (the Network) and of the Global Water Partnership Organisation (the Organisation), and the relation between the two.

(2) The Network does not have legal personality.

(3) The Organisation shall possess full legal personality under international law and enjoy such capacities as may be necessary to exercise its functions in the fulfilment of the objective set out in Article 2. Its status under the national law of the Host State of the Secretariat will be provided in a Headquarters Agreement between that State and the Organisation.

Article 2

OBJECTIVES

(1) The vision of the Network is for a water-secure world. Its mission is to support the sustainable development and management of water resources at all levels.

(2) The objective of the Network is to develop and promote the principles of integrated water resources management and to that end:

- a) Identify critical needs and stimulate Partners to meet such needs within their available human and financial resources;
- b) Support action at national, regional, local or river-basin level that will lead to the adoption and implementation of the principles of integrated water resources management;
- c) Help match needs to available resources;
- d) Strengthen mechanisms for sharing information and experience.

(3) The objective of the Organisation is to support and work with the Network in the fulfilment of its objective.

Article 3

PARTNERS OF THE NETWORK

(1) Any entity, except individuals, may become a Partner of the Network. Partners of the Network may include States, national, regional and local Governmental Institutions, Intergovernmental Organisations, international and national Non-Governmental Organisations, Academic Institutions and Research Institutions, Companies, and service providers in the public sector.

(2) Any entity of the character referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, which recognises the principles of integrated water resources management endorsed by the Network and is committed to implement these principles, may become a Partner of the Network, subject to a decision by the Executive Secretary.

(3) The Network provides a Partner with:

- a) A channel through which to establish contact with other Partners;
- b) Guidance on identifying critical needs;

- c) An opportunity to match one Partner's needs with another Partner's resources;
 - d) An opportunity to contribute to the development of the concept of integrated water resources management.
- (4) A Partner shall:
- a) Co-ordinate its relevant activities with those of other concerned organisations;
 - b) Share information and experience freely with the other Partners;
 - c) Give advice and professional contributions to the Network, the Organisation and to other Partners, on such conditions as may be agreed free of charge up to a reasonable level and at a mutually agreed charge above that level.
- (5) A Partner may present itself as "Partner of the Global Water Partnership".
- (6) The Steering Committee may further clarify the concept and position of Partners through the Policy on Partners.

Article 4

SPONSORING PARTNERS OF THE ORGANISATION

- (1) Members of the Organisation are called Sponsoring Partners.
- (2) States and Intergovernmental Organisations, which are Partners of the Network and which have been invited to sign the Memorandum of Understanding on the Establishment of the Global Water Partnership Organisation, and have become Parties to that agreement in accordance with Article I thereof, are original Sponsoring Partners.
- (3) Other States and Intergovernmental Organisations may become Sponsoring Partners, subject to a decision by the Annual Meeting of the Sponsoring Partners and after accession to the Memorandum of Understanding on the Establishment of the Global Water Partnership Organisation. Such membership is open to:
- a) Other States, which are Partners of the Network and have a record of support for the objective of the Network;
 - b) Other Intergovernmental Organisations, which are Partners of the Network, have a global role in water affairs, and have a record of support for the objective of the Network.
- (4) The membership as a Sponsoring Partner of the Organisation does not affect the status of a State or Intergovernmental Organisation as a Partner of the Network.

Article 5

GENERAL PROVISION ON ORGANIC STRUCTURE

- (1) The Network is a network of interested Partners, from the public sector, the private sector, and civil society, concerned with water affairs around the world. The Network operates through co-operation with Partners and through the Network Meeting and any groups and committees established by it.
- (2) Partners may be organised on a regional and country basis in Water Partnerships as the functional part of the Network in that region or country. Such Regional and Country Water Partnerships become a part of the Network provided they meet the conditions for accreditation as adopted by the Steering Committee. Accredited Regional and Country Water Partnerships may use the GWP name and logo and are an integral part of the Network but remain autonomous organisations.

(3) The Organisation consists of the Meeting of the Sponsoring Partners, the Chair, the Steering Committee, the Nomination Committee, the Technical Committee, the Executive Secretary, the Secretariat and such other organs that the Steering Committee may decide to establish in accordance with these Statutes. Other entities operating with or within the Network are not parts of the Organisation.

(4) The Network and its operations are managed by the Chair, the Steering Committee and other organs of the Organisation as well as by the Network Meeting, as provided for in these Statutes.

Article 6

THE GLOBAL WATER PARTNERSHIP CHAIR

(1) The Global Water Partnership Chair (the Chair) is the head and spokesperson for the Network as well as the Organisation. The Chair represents the Network and the Organisation in all forums, and chairs the Network Meeting and the meetings of the Steering Committee.

(2) The Chair shall be appointed by the Annual Meeting of the Sponsoring Partners for a period that shall not exceed three years, which may be subject to renewal once only.

(3) The Chair shall serve in her or his personal capacity.

Article 7

THE STEERING COMMITTEE

(1) The executive body of the Organisation is the Steering Committee. The Steering Committee develops, steers and organises the work of the Organisation and guides the co-operation between the Partners within the Network. The Steering Committee shall facilitate for the Network to attain its objective and shall implement the strategic directions and policies adopted by the Network Meeting.

(2) The Steering Committee shall consist of a minimum of eleven and a maximum of twenty-one members, as decided by the Meeting of the Sponsoring Partners. The Steering Committee shall include, as ex officio members, the Chair, the Executive Secretary and the chair of the Technical Committee.

(3) The Chair of UN Water, or a senior representative from within UN Water as appointed by the Chair of UN Water for the duration of the UN Water Chair's appointment, is entitled to participate as a member of the Steering Committee. The Steering Committee shall also include one member representing all Regional Water Partnerships appointed in accordance with the procedure adopted by the Steering Committee.

(4) Other members of the Steering Committee shall be appointed by the Annual Meeting of the Sponsoring Partners for a period that shall not exceed three years, which may be subject to renewal one time. The terms of the first members shall be staggered in order to establish gradual rotation of membership.

- (5) Members of the Steering Committee shall serve in their personal capacity.
- (6) The Steering Committee shall meet at least twice a year on the convocation of the Chair. Observers may be invited to the meetings of the Steering Committee.
- (7) The Steering Committee may hold meetings through distant communication, in accordance with such procedures as it decides.
- (8) The Steering Committee shall:
- a) Develop the policy of the Network and the work of the Organisation in support of the Network, taking into account the strategic directions and policies adopted by the Network Meeting;
 - b) Create and appoint a Technical Committee, taking due account of the Technical Committee of the Network, functional prior to the entry into force of these Statutes;
 - c) Create and appoint such other committees or groups as it finds necessary for the performance of its functions, which may include members of the Steering Committee and other individuals as appropriate;
 - d) Issue by-laws, work-plans, budgets and instructions for the Organisation and for groups and committees that have been established by it;
 - e) Review the work of the committees and groups that have been established by it;
 - f) Decide on proposals and recommendations from such committees and groups, unless such proposals must be submitted to the Network Meeting or the Meeting of the Sponsoring Partners;
 - g) Appoint the members of the Nomination Committee, taking into account this Committee's task to find candidates which reflect a balance in terms of professional background, geographical representation, gender and level of development of the person's home State;
 - h) Decide on recruitment, appointment and removal of the Executive Secretary;
 - i) Recommend new Sponsoring Partners to be approved by the Meeting of the Sponsoring Partners;
 - j) Supervise that Partners respect the principles of the Network and recommend to the Network Meeting the expulsion of a Partner in case of a violation of these principles;
 - k) If necessary, recommend amendments to these Statutes in accordance with Article 17;
 - l) Establish links with and accredit Regional Water Partnerships, and Country Water Partnerships, and authorise such and other entities to use the name "Global Water Partnership" as part of their name or in a similar manner to indicate stronger links than normal partnership;
 - m) Convene the Network Meeting in accordance with these Statutes;
 - n) Convene the Meeting of the Sponsoring Partners in accordance with these Statutes;
 - o) Present a yearly activity report to the Partners and the Sponsoring Partners;
 - p) Present a yearly financial statement to the Partners for information and to the Sponsoring Partners for approval at the Meeting of Sponsoring Partners;
 - q) Comment on and distribute the audit report or reports to the Partners and to the Meeting of Sponsoring Partners. The distribution to the Partners may be done through electronic means of communication.
- (9) Decisions of the Steering Committee shall be taken by simple majority. Decisions require the presence of at least half of its members plus one, when taken at a meeting, and require participation of three-quarters of the members when taken through distant communication.

(10) Decisions of the Steering Committee shall be based on available financial and human resources within the Organisation and shall take into consideration the need to safeguard the efficient use of these resources.

Article 8

THE NOMINATION COMMITTEE

(1) The Nomination Committee shall consist of five or seven members, as decided by the Steering Committee.

(2) The members of the Nomination Committee shall be appointed by the Steering Committee for a period that shall not exceed three years, which may be subject to renewal one time. The terms of the first members shall be staggered in order to establish gradual rotation of membership.

(3) The members of the Nomination Committee shall serve in their personal capacity.
