

Agenda

Workshop on Responding to the Global Food Security Challenge through Coordinated Land and Water Governance

A joint GWP-ILC-IWMI initiative

15-16 June, Pretoria, South Africa

General rapporteurs:

- Madiodio Niasse & Danka Thalmeinerova, GWP/TEC
- Jan Cherlet, ILC
- T. Olalekan Williams or Barbara van Koppen, IWMI
- Andrew Takawira, Patricia Lumba and Julienne Yebga - GWPSA
- Melvyn Kay, editor, GWP

DAY 1
Session 1 - OPENING: WELCOME AND WORKSHOP OBJECTIVES
Chair: Ruth Beukman, GWPSA
Rapporteurs: Danka Thalmeinerova GWP ; Patricia Lumba - GWPSA
9:00-9:30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Address by Ruth Beukman, GWPSA - Address by Chris Dickens, IWMISA - Address by T. Olalekan Williams, IWMI-Africa - Address by Jan Cherlet, ILC Secretariat - Address by Phera Ramoeli – SADC Water Division - Directorate of Infrastructure & Services - Background, objectives and structure of the workshop by Madiodio Niasse, GWP/TEC
Session 2 : FRAMING THE LAND AND WATER NEXUS
Chair: Ruth Beukman, GWPSA
Rapporteurs: Danka Thalmeinerova GWP ; Patricia Lumba - GWPSA
9:30-9:50	Coordinating land and water governance in the context of world food security, by Madiodio Niasse, GWP/TEC
9:50-10:10	Towards voluntary guidelines for people-centred land-water tenure. The untapped synergies between rights-based land and water governance By Barbara van Koppen, IWMI
10:10-10:30	Ecosystem services mapping as a framework for integrated resource management by Chris Dickens, IWMI
10:30-11:15	Discussions (45 min)
11:15-11:30	Coffee break
Session 3a : LARGE-SCALE LAND AND WATER-BASED INVESTMENTS: GOVERNANCE IMPLICATIONS – PART 1
Chair: Madiodio Niasse, GWP-TEC
Rapporteurs: Jan Cherlet, ILC ; Andrew Takawira - GWPSA
11:30-11:50	A global perspective on land-scale land and water deals: governance implications by Ward Anseeuw, CIRAD and University of Pretoria
11:50-12:10	Land acquisitions – How will they impact transboundary waters by Anton Earle, SIWI
12:10-13:00	Discussions (50 min)
13:00-14:00	Lunch break

Session 3b: LARGE-SCALE LAND AND WATER-BASED INVESTMENTS: GOVERNANCE IMPLICATIONS – PART 2
Chair: Madiodio Niasse, GWP-TEC
Rapporteurs: Jan Cherlet, ILC ; Andrew Takawira - GWPSA
14:00-14:20	Land and water governance in the context of foreign direct investment in agriculture in sub-Saharan Africa , T. Olalekan Williams, Director, Africa, IWMI
14:20-14:40	Bioenergy- Large Scale Agriculture Investments in Africa – Food Security: Emerging Perspectives by Ruhiza Jean Boroto, FAO
14:40-15:00	Reflections on the relevance of outcomes of the 2014 Inaugural Conference on Land Policy in Africa- by Rashid Mbaziira, AUC-GIZ
15:00-15:45	Discussions (45 min)
15:45-16:00	Coffee break
Session 4 : GROUNDWATER AND LAND GOVERNANCE
Chair: Chris Dickens, IWMI-SA
Rapporteurs: Robert Kafakoma, TSP/Malawi;
16:00-16:20	Links between land use and groundwater – Governance provisions and management strategies – Jan Cherlet, ILC
16:20-16:40	Groundwater governance and its implications on land use – The case of Fadama areas of Kebbi State, Nigeria , by E.O. Longe, University of Lagos
16:40-17:30	Discussions (50 min)
DAY 2
Session 5: COORDINATING LAND AND WATER GOVERNANCE – PERSPECTIVES FROM AFRICA
Chair: Ward Anseeuw, CIRAD-Univ of Pretoria
Rapporteurs: Barbara van Koppen or T. Olalekan Williams, IWMI; Julienne Yebga - GWPSA)
9:00-9:20	Finding the missing links between land and water governance amid global and local agrarian and urban transformations: Perspectives from South Africa and the broader Sub-Saharan Africa by Barbara Tapela, PLAAS
9:20-9:40	Development of agricultural irrigated lands in Burkina Faso by Tiemtore Mouhamoudou, GWP-WA
9:40-10:00	A rights-based approach to land and water governance – Oxfam’s approach and ambition (with emphasis on Africa) . By Everlyne Nairesiae and Rudo Sanyanga
10:00-10:50	Discussions (50 min)
10:50-11:10	Coffee Break
Session 6: COORDINATING LAND AND WATER GOVERNANCE – PERSPECTIVES FROM LATIN AMERICA AND ASIA
Chair: Jan Cherlet, ILC
Rapporteurs: Madiodio Niasse, GWP-TEC; Julienne Yebga – GWPSA
11:10-11:30	Integrated land and water management in the Yacambu-Quíbor Project, Venezuela , by Hervé Jegat, CIDIAT-ULA
11:30-11:50	Just in time: Chances for a holistic approach for land and water governance in Cisadane sub-watershed area, Bogor District, Indonesia . By Mardha Tillah, RMI, Indonesia
11:50-12:10	Community-led land and water management in Nepal by Jagat Basnet, CSRC Nepal
12:10-13:00	Discussions (50 min)
13:00-14:00	Lunch break

Session 7: COORDINATING LAND AND WATER GOVERNANCE: A GENDER PERSPECTIVE

Chair : Barbara van Koppen, IWMI-SA

Rapporteurs: Patricia Lumba - GWPSA

14:00-14:20	Safeguarding women land and water rights through establishment of land monitoring and recording systems: Emerging lessons from Malawi by Robert Kafakoma, TSP, Malawi
14:20-14:40	Women's Empowerment and Increased Food Security through increased access to land and water: An Experience from Jharkhand, India. By Saswati Roy, SWADHINA, India
14:40-15:30	Discussions (50 min)
15:30-15:45	Coffee Break

Session 8: WRAPPING UP AND CLOSING

Chair: T. T. Olalekan Williams IWMI

Rapporteurs: Danka Thalmeinerova, GWPO ; Patricia Lumba - GWPSA

15:45-17:45	Open discussions: What have we learned? What is next? Collaborative opportunities (120 min)
17:45-18:00	Closing by IWMI, ILC, GWP