

Agenda
National Information Seminar
29 May 2017
” Project DriDANUBE
Risk of Drought in the Danube Region”, Bucharest, Romania
National Meteorological Administration

09:00 – 09:20	Welcome– Registration of participants
09.20 - 09.30	Welcome speech: pHd. Elena MATEESCU - NMA General Manager
09:30 – 10:00	Project presentation DriDanube The risk of drought in the Danube region	National Meteorological Administration - project team
10:00 – 10:30	National experiences in managing the drought phenomenon at national level: the results of the Ro-Risk Project - Consultancy and expertise services for drought risk assessment (meteorological and hydrological) at national level for the implementation of the project "National disaster risk assessment"	Director General pHd. Elena Mateescu, National Meteorological Administration
10:00 – 11:00	Similar European projects on the effects of climate change on agriculture – Project "The Green Way to Sustainable Development", funded under the RO07 Program through EEA Grants 2009-2014	National Meteorological Administration - project team
11:20 – 11:30	Coffee break
11:30 – 12:00	Global Water Partnership Central and Eastern Europe	Engineer L.N. Popescu – GWP-RO president
12:00 – 13:00	Drought Management Plan (Monitoring, Impact, Prevention, Adaptation)	National Meteorological Administration - project team
13.00-13.40	Workshop -Completing questionnaires on agriculture and forestry-	National Meteorological Administration
13:40 – 14:00	Discussions on deficiencies and good practices for adaptation to climate change with use for actors involved in agriculture and forestry	