

Arab Women Water Energy Environment Network Association, AWWEENA

Mission: The participation of women in the management, planning, conservation and use of water resources, energy and environment to improve the quality of life of their families and their communities.

Objectives: to establish a strong regional, self-sustaining women's association in order to assist women in Jordan, the Arab countries to manage, plan, conserve and use water resources, energy and environment for a better life and to network with Women Associations around the world to fill our mission.

Guided Principles:

- ◆ Acknowledge and recognize the axial and central role of women in sustainable development.
- ◆ The full and equal participation of all major groups in society, each in its own role, and the promotion of social justice and gender equality.
- ◆ Focus on individuals as the axial of development.
- ◆ Water and energy in all their uses are entry points for sustainable human development.
- ◆ Cooperation and partnership with women and their organizations through diversity and integration.

Added values

- ◆ The Society will fill the gap between daily practices in the management of these resources and internationally agreed principles for achieving sustainable development.
- ◆ The Society links between total and partial overlaps and create conditions that enable women and their organizations to become partners in the development of their own environment.
- ◆ The Society shall implement programs, activities and projects that achieve the objectives mentioned above and comply with them, and notify the competent ministry before commencing implementation.

The Association provides services to citizens on an equity and voluntary basis, without the aim of making profits or sharing them or achieving any benefit to any of its members or to any individual who is directly or indirectly identified, or to achieve any political objectives within the scope of the activities or political parties or achieving sectarian goals.