

Global Water Partnership
Nominations for the GWP Steering Committee Regionally nominated member
China 2023

Please fill in this form and attach the Curriculum Vitae, no more than 3 pages, of the nominee and send it to: nominations@gwp.org no later than close of business , 26 May 2023, at 23:59, Stockholm time.

XU Jing, female, born in January 1982, obtaining bachelor degree of English Literature from Beijing Foreign Studies University and master degree of Public Policy (specializing in Environmental Policy)from the Australian National University.

Since July 2004, XU Jing worked in the Department of International Cooperation, Science and Technology, Ministry of Water Resources, P. R. China, and was appointed Deputy Division Chief in 2015 and Division Chief in 2017, responsible for bilateral and multilateral water cooperation.

From September 2006 to September 2007, XU Jing worked in the Water Resources Protection Bureau of the Yellow River Conservancy Commission, implementing international cooperation projects, EIA projects and assessment projects for water withdrawal permits.

In March 2021, XU Jing was appointed Deputy Director General of International Economic and Technical Cooperation and Exchange Center, Ministry of Water Resources, responsible for international water cooperation, policy study and policy making, capacity building, international communication and international standards.