

GLOBAL INTEGRATED FLOOD AND DROUGHT MANAGEMENT COMPETITION FOR #YOUTH-LED PROJECTS

organized by the APFM & IDMP joint programmes of the World Meteorological Organization (WMO) and Global Water Partnership (GWP) in partnership with the Water Youth Network (WYN)

CHOOSE SINGLE/ MULTIPLE THEMES

- A. Monitoring: Innovative monitoring for EWS
- B. Warning Dissemination: Innovative ways to disseminate early warnings
- C. Communication and Awareness Raising: Innovative approaches to increase the preparedness and ability of the population to react appropriately to warnings
- D. Impact mapping: Innovative mapping of hazard impacts to improve the understanding of the vulnerability and feed back into the EWS to enhance it.

WHAT TO SUBMIT

Stage 1:

Submit a video presentation (up to 3 minutes) of your idea and information about yourself/your team/organization.

Stage 2:

Upon selection, submit a Concept Note detailing your proposal

Stage 3:

Finalists will give a Live Pitch to a jury

AWARDS

3000€ for implementing the winning idea

Technical Workshop (Concept Note development) of APFM and IDMP with individual coaching for the 10 shortlisted proposals

Eligibility Criteria

- Should be youth-led (age 15 – 35) activities/project and include youth participation across all aspects of the project
- Projects have to be result-oriented with clear objectives.
- Projects should be implemented within a maximum 6 months
- Research ideas and projects from the following are encouraged:
 - Social innovation and entrepreneurship ideas
 - University students/researchers projects
 - Women-lead projects
- The submissions can be done by any individual/ youth led organisations/team of young professionals

Submission deadline :

Stage 1 | 15 December 2021

Stage 2 | 17 February 2022

Stage 3 | To be announced

All details (guidelines, submission links etc.) are provided here:

<https://www.droughtmanagement.info/youth-engagement/>

<https://www.floodmanagement.info/youth-engagement/>