The Rainwater Harvesting Programme enhances local water security and climate change adaptation in the Greek Islands.

- 40,000 beneficiaries in insular communities
- 39 million liters estimated annual water yield
- 26 project islands
- 48 rainwater harvesting systems installed and reinstated
- 7,500 students educated
- 900 teachers trained
- 1 reverse osmosis water kiosk installed
- 1 grey water reuse system installed

Islands:
- Syros
- Tinos
- Naxos
- Paros
- Antiparos
- Santorini
- Anafi
- Ios
- Amorgos
- Iraklia
- Koufonisia
- Folegandros
- Sikinos
- Milos
- Sifnos
- Serifos
- Kythnos
- Kea
- Andros
- Kastelorizo
- Rhodes
- Symi
- Chalki
- Patmos
- Leros
- Lipsi

Global Water Partnership Mediterranean

www.gwpmed.org