

Diana Kimbute
P.O Box 11281
Dar es Salaam,
TANZANIA
Cellphone: +255 786-752925
+255 714-308535
Email: dkimbute@gmail.com

Diana Kimbute

Professional Summary

Diana Kimbute is a member of the Tanzania Water Partnership (TWP) core team. She holds a Master Degree in Integrated Water Resources Management (IWRM) specializing in Water and Environment. Ms Diana is a Senior Hydrologist at the Ministry of Water. She has diverse professional experience in Water Resources Management undertaking different tasks such as hydrological and meteorological data analysis, modelling, establishment of monitoring networks as well as site verification for Hydropower development. She has conducted and coordinated research pertaining to water resources and environmental management, alternative sources of water, managing water resources information system, database management, provision of technical information and backstopping to management of rural/urban water supply utilities (Kidunda dam), review and advice on standards, procedures and guidelines on construction, design and monitoring operation of water use entities, enhance water demand management and waste water disposal, as well as prepare timely, accurately and quality work plan, technical, financial and other reports. Diana is an active member of various professional institutions, networks and associations such as the Institute of Engineers Tanzania (IET).