

#Be Bold For Change: International Women's Day 2017, GWP SAS

International Women's Day

"Planet 50-50 by 2030: Step It Up for Gender Equality" was the global theme for International Women's Day 2017, celebrated on 8 March. It asks governments to make national commitments to address the challenges that are holding women and girls back from reaching their full potential.

In line with this year's theme GWP SAS raised the question "How can the water sector step it up for gender equality?" from women in water community in South Asia. The opinion of these eminent women have been reflected in GWP SAS website and the facebook.

Read more>>

An umbrella article was published in the GWP website linking quotes from the regions and the regional sites.

Read more>>

Why Waste Water? World Water Day 2017

The World Water Day was celebrated on March 22 and this year's theme was Why Waste Water?

The Country Water Partnerships (CWPs) organised programmes at the country level to celebrate the World Water Day with conferences, awareness raising campaigns and welfare activities.

- The Interactive seminar on Water and Wetlands for Achieving Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), Sri Lanka, 22 March Read more>>
- Cleaning Thimphu River on World Water Day 2017, Bhutan, 22 March Read more>>
- World Water Day 2017 Celebration - 27 March, India Read more>>
- Interactive webinar for Emerging Water Professionals, Sri Lanka, 29 March 2017

Read more >>

New GWP SAS website - launched on 22 March

The new GWP SAS regional website was launched on the World Water Day – altogether there are 14 editions, one for every region together with the global site www.gwp.org that tying them all together.

Link to the GWP SAS website >>

